BRING YOUR TEAM

workhuman*live
APR 15-18 2024 | AUSTIN

Come as a team.
Leave as a force.

About Workhuman Live.

After nine years of pulling off the industry's most transformative conference, Workhuman Live knows what today's HR leaders are wrestling with.

Other events try to tackle every trending topic in the workplace in hopes of telling the audience exactly what they want to hear with buzzwords like burnout, engagement, and the future of work – words that are symptoms. To find solutions that deliver impact, Workhuman Live is focusing on the cause and teaching attendees how to do more with less.

What makes Workhuman Live different?

Vision

Workhuman Live is a movement founded upon the mission to make work more human for everyone. It has evolved to be the industry's premiere destination to host the exchange of radical ideas and novel, divergent thinking. Here, you'll join us to tackle the issues that are challenging the workplace today, and be a part of defining what it looks like in the future.

Experience

At Workhuman Live, everything you'll see and do – from keynotes and workshops to tech demos and one-of-a-kind installations like the Gratitude Bar – is centered on the human experience. You'll see things differently and come away inspired and empowered to drive change.

Designed for You

Workhuman Live has been empowering leaders and revealing insights about culture and engagement since before it was cool. We know what HR needs because we listen. From thought leaders to innovators, futurists to culture makers, it draws guests and presenters across a wide range of backgrounds – all bringing unique perspectives. The opportunity to learn, network, build relationships and reshape work is unlike anything else in the industry.
