CONVINCE YOUR BOSS

You're in the right place.

If you made it this far, you're invested in elevating yourself and your organization. Kudos.

But, as you know, that's only half the battle.

Now it's time to convince decision-makers of what we already know: Workhuman Live is the world's premier event to gain actionable insights that drive positive change in the workplace and beyond.

Let's do this.

The elevator pitch

See, boss — the times, they are a-changin'.

HR and business leaders are now being called into emerging roles as visionaries and guides of thriving, purpose-driven workplaces. This requires insights and inspiration absent in our day-to-day routines.

Workhuman Live is leveraging 10 years of event experience to make today's workplace problems tomorrow's wins — through a curated agenda of A-list speakers, interactive workshops, and world-class networking.

Oh, what floor are you going to?

The conference that aims higher.

The insights of a think tank.

Workhuman Live is like a buffet for the brain, featuring eye-opening keynotes, breakouts, and workshops that allow attendees to personalize agendas around their unique appetites for workplace solutions. Come hungry, leave empowered.

The energy of a festival.

What's brain food without soul food? Workhuman Live draws inspiration from the host city to create a dynamic, interactive space where ideas and culture collide—featuring local music, art, and one-of-a-kind installations. It's like Woodstock. But for wisdom.

The star power of a gala.

Best-selling authors. Olympic champions. Movie stars. The First Lady. As Workhuman Live enters its 10th year, we're assembling a roster of dream team speakers that will make your jaw drop and your friends jealous.
